

ADDENDUM TO SCHOOL ADMISSION POLICY JEC

Students, currently residing in houses located on Trigger Lane, who attended King George County Schools for the 2007-2008 school year may continue to attend King George County Schools for the 2008-2009 school year. If the house in which the student resides is deeded in Westmoreland County and real estate taxes are paid to Westmoreland County, the student may no longer attend King George County Schools beyond the 2008-2009 school year.

However, if the above residency description applies to a student who was enrolled in King George High School for the 2008-2009 school year, the student may continue to attend King George High School until he/she has graduated.

Any student who moves into or is born into a house located on Trigger Lane, on or after August 25, 2008, that is deeded in Westmoreland County and real estate taxes are paid to Westmoreland County may not attend King George County Schools.

Approved: September 24, 2008

---

---